Chicago Temple (First Methodist)

the world's tallest and Chicago's oldest church, is located in the heart of the downtown Loop, having occupied this site for 113 years. Its spire, floodlighted at night, is an impressive sight. The chimes are heard throughout the downtown area. The "Sky Parsonage" has recently been completed. The "Sky Chapel" is now under construction. An active weekday program culminates on Sunday, with overflow congregations coming from an average of thirty states. The church is open daily for meditation and prayer.

Sunday Services: 11:00 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

Noonday Musical Meditations Daily
